

Regional Family Support Planning Council #1
(Morris, Sussex, Warren) proudly hosts

NEW DATE

A Conversation with Paul Aronsohn

Paul Aronsohn is the New Jersey's Ombudsman for Individuals with Intellectual or Developmental Disabilities and Their Families since 2018. He serves as the administration's lead advocate and ally for New Jersey residents with developmental disabilities in need of critical services and supports ranging from early childhood through adulthood.

Monday March 18, 2024, 7PM

Wegman's Food Court

34 Sylvan Way Parsippany-Troy Hills, NJ 07054

REGISTER HERE

IN-PERSON EVENT

Register today. The space is limited.

Though we strongly encourage you to attend in person for this interactive event, we have a virtual platform for those who are unable to do so. Please use the separate registration link here.