DOCUMENTATION OF DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITY

Include as many of the documents below as possible that relate to the applicant's developmental disability. The more documentation that is provided, the easier it is for DDD to process the application.

Necessary

- Medical Documentation of Disability
- Most Recent Psychological Evaluation (+IQ Scores)
- Neurological Evaluations
- Most Recent Child Study Team or School Reports
- Psychiatric Evaluations
- DVRS Assessments
- All Available Psychological Reports

Helpful But Not Necessary

- Most Recent IEP
- Speech Therapy Evaluations
- Occupational Therapy Evaluations
- Physical Therapy Evaluations
- Hospital Records
- Social Summaries

Documentation/Evaluations should be completed within the last 3 years

(School can assist with gathering needed information)
