Bergen Belsen

1st concentration camp visited in Germany

Liberated by British in 1945 and burned down

Later became Displaced Persons camp

Ravensbrook

All women's camp

Mainly used for textile factory labor

Across the pond
from a bustling town

Sachsenhausen

Training, research, and development
camp

Trained officers to run other camps
throughout Europe

Developed killing and torture methods

Auschwitz-Birkenau

One of the largest and most famous camps

About the size of a small town

One of the highest rates of mortality of Polish camps

Belzec

First death camp visited

Was completely destroyed by Nazis

More than 600,000
killed in six months

Majdanek

One of the only camps left completely intact upon liberation

Buildings still standing, many victims still alive

Treblinka

Final stop on our two week trip

Like Belzec,
destroyed by Nazis

About 900,000
killed in nine months
