

2018-2019 Start with DDR-1 "Pledge".

Kim:

Hello and welcome to Good Morning, Jefferson!

Today is Monday, February 11, 2019.

I'm Kim N...I'm Vincent C...I'm Bill W....

And I'm Yves T. Today is Day 4!

Kim:

Attention AP Students...AP Exam Registration is now open. Students planning to take an Advanced Placement Exam in May 2019 must register on Naviance.

Payment must be made on the parent portal under online payments. Please check Google Classroom for directions. If you have any questions, please stop by guidance.

Diversity Night, "A Taste of Many Cultures", will be during our Service Night on Tuesday, February 20, from 5-7pm in the new cafe. Spanish Club is selling pre-order tacos, French Club is selling pre-order crepes, & other specialties will be available to sample. We'll have games, activities, & performances. Don't miss this celebration of all students at JTHS!

A reminder to Wind Ensemble members...

Report for dress rehearsal immediately after homeroom.

Symphonic Band, Block C and D.

Are you prom dress shopping already? Well, hold off buying something until you visit the "Project Self Sufficiency" Mobile Prom Shop. All dresses are gently used and free, and there's even a dressing room! The Mobile Prom Shop will be here on Wednesday, March 27 during both lunches!

Now here's Bill:

Bill:

Attention Spring Athletes... registration is now open. Please go into the Athletic Web page and register so we can make sure all your paperwork is in order for the first day of practice. The school Doctor will be here on Wednesday, February 13. You must make an appointment with the school nurse or Mrs. Grieves in the athletic office if you want to see the school doctor.

The Jefferson Golf team is looking for some new recruits. Any Boys or Girls interested in coming out for the Golf team this spring need to register online by TODAY, February 11th and bring all paperwork to the Athletic office. See Coach Cacella in D13 with any questions.

In other news...

We'll be back after this...

Vincent:

The March SAT will be here soon, and JTHS offers FREE SAT Prep Classes to get you ready.

Visit the high school website or see Ms. Brueno or Ms. Todd to get a form. Registration ends this Thursday, February 14, and seats are limited!

Valentine's day candygrams will be on sale in the cafeteria during the lunches. Buy one today and have it delivered in homeroom on Valentine's day! Each candygram is $2 and proceeds will support Operation Safehome.

Hey Seniors! Since you all want cool shirts in Ms. Clarizio's commercial, buy a senior class shirt! The online store is open through February 13th, link is posted on the senior class google classroom. This is one of our last fundraisers before prom!

Now here's Yves...

Yves:

Today's Shout Out goes to...

Lara Wilson for bringing all kinds of sunshine wherever she goes.

Thanks for helping out with our "sweet" notes!

Keep the shout out's coming!

And in other news...

How much has your homeroom raised? A complete list of how much each homeroom has raised was e-mailed to teachers on Friday afternoon.

Do you know where U.S. currency is minted? Denver, Philadelphia, and San Francisco. Over this week, try to find as many coins as you can from each location and bring them in to contribute to the box in your homeroom.

Now here's Kim...

Kim:

There will be a Project Kind meeting on Wednesday, February 13th after school.

We will be meeting in room B-1 in the middle school.

New members are welcome.

Refreshments will be served!

There will be a Habitat for Humanity meeting today at 2:30 p.m. in G209.

For all of us here at Good Morning Jefferson, thanks for watching and have a great day!
