

2018-2019 Start with DDR-1 "Pledge".

Kim:

Hello and welcome to Good Morning, Jefferson!

Today is Tuesday, March 19, 2019.

I'm Kim N...I'm Vincent C...I'm Bill W....

And I'm Yves T. Today is Day 4!

Kim:

Congratulations go out to Kristine Bartley for her acceptance into New Jersey All State Orchestra on viola. Way to go!

Attention AP Students...

AP Exam Registration is now open.

Students planning to take an Advanced Placement Exam in May 2019 must register on Naviance. Payment must be made on the parent portal under online payments.

Please check Google Classroom for directions.

If you have any questions, please stop by guidance.

Seniors, nearly 40 local JTHS scholarships are now available on Naviance and in Guidance. These scholarships are only available to students here at JTHS and range from $100 to $2,000! The majority of completed student applications must be returned to guidance by April 5th, unless otherwise noted on the application.

Starting next week during the lunch/academic block students can stop by guidance for help on their applications.

Bill:

Attention all Unified Track and Field athletes... the bus leaves at 2:45PM today - you should be at the Freedom Gym by 2:30PM ready to go! And everyone else, wish our Unified Athletes luck as they head to Mt. Olive to play in a friendly basketball game!

In other news...

Now here's Vinny:

Vincent:

Attention all REBEL members: We will be having a brief, but important meeting on Friday, March 22 after school in room G200. Attendance is mandatory. Please see or email Ms. Sauer if you cannot attend. Additionally, please give Ms. Sauer your t-shirt order forms and money as soon as possible!

(PLAY CAMP COURAGE)

National Honor Society is having a fund drive to raise money for Camp Courage, which is an organization which sends care packages to those serving in the military. There is a donation bucket in each homeroom.

Our goal is to raise $600 to send 20 care packages.
Please donate in your homeroom.
Thank you for your support of the military. For every $30 your homeroom raises, your homeroom will receive a certificate which can be proudly displayed to show that you supported our soldiers.

Now back to Kim...

Kim:

There will be a mandatory UNICEF club meeting tomorrow, Wednesday, March 20th at 2:30 in room B6. See Mrs. Farris with any questions.

Back after this..
(SWEENEY)

Yves:

Today's Shout Out goes to...

Ryan Sarra for all the help he's been giving in the media center! Yippee!

Keep the shout out's coming!

And this just in...

Would you like to create zombies? Come join the spring musical Make Up and Hair Team! We need a creative group next week to develop some scary characters.

If you would like to help with make-up and hair, please see or email Mrs. Cantwell by this Friday, March 22nd. Or drop by the auditorium after school today!

Now here's Kim...

Kim:

Attention Sophomores! Your class is running a Yankee Candle fundraiser. Please consider participating so we can raise money for our class! Brochures were distributed in homeroom and the necessary information is posted on the Class of 2021 Google Classroom. All orders and money must be submitted by April 8th. Please see Ms. Russo in D6 with any questions.

For all of us here at Good Morning Jefferson, thanks for watching and have a great day!

(And keep smiling because it's "Good Morning, Jefferson!")
