Student of the Month

ENGLISH

Kailey Lawless

Kailey has been selected as the English department student of the month.

Kailey's teacher says...

“Kailey has been working at an exceptionally high level since the onset of the new school year. Kailey not only completes her work in a timely and exceptional manner, but she also checks in consistently on her growth in the class by asking questions and seeking feedback from her teachers about her academic progress. Kailey is hardworking and is becoming an admirable role model for her peers to follow in the class. We are very proud of her success and growth this year! Great job, Kailey! Keep up the good work!”

MATHEMATICS

John Bonforte

John Bonforte has been selected as the Mathematics department student of the month.

John's teacher says...

"John is a senior in AP Statistics. He consistently hands in quality work and maintains a strong A average. In addition, he connects with his classmates during group work and is often heard explaining how he solved a particular problem. "

SOCIAL STUDIES

Joseph Rocha

Joe Rocha has been selected as the Social Studies department student of the month.

Joe's teacher says...

“Joe has shown consistency throughout the school year. He is an outstanding student who brings intelligence as well as laughter to every class. He is a class leader who is often turned to by other students to answer the tough questions. His knowledge of the subject and analytical style of thinking often brings a refreshing atmosphere to the course. He is always there to congratulate or offer assistance to his fellow classmates. He is kind, courteous and friendly and is well deserving of the student of the month.”

SCIENCE

Christian Warner

Christian Warner has been selected as the Science department student of the month.

Christian's teacher says...

"Christian is an exemplary chemistry student. His work is always done on time, and he always has a firm grasp on the material. He asks pertinent questions in class and drives the class discussion forward. He has achieved over 95% on every test we have had so far this year. In his lab group, Christian is a leader, often helping the other students so that they can make efficient use of their time."

HEALTH/PE

Katelynn Peterson

Katelynn Peterson has been selected as the Health/PE department student of the month.

Katelynn's teacher says...

"She is an incredible student who goes above and beyond in class every day. She is on the rescue squad and contributes in helping any students in need of learning CPR techniques. She is a friendly person who explains things with ease to others. She has a perfect average of 100% both in health and first aid/CPR class. She not only excels academically but was also involved in the play "CLUE" where she was unbelievable in a lead role. She is a phenomenal person in everything she does and deserves to be recognized for this award."

WORLD LANGUAGE

Jeremy San Lucas

Jeremy San Lucas has been selected as the World Language department student of the month.

Jeremy's teacher says...

“Jeremy is an extremely hard working student. He completes all work with the utmost attention to detail. He actively participates in interpersonal activities and works well with his classmates. Jeremy is a serious student who is pursuing both Spanish and American Sign Language. Jeremy understands how important it is to be able to communicate with people. As President Gerald R. Ford said, “Nothing in life is more important than the ability to communicate effectively.”

BUSINESS

Kyle Keppler

Kyle Keppler has been selected as the Business department student of the month.

Kyle's teacher says...

"Kyle is a polite and respectful young man who is extremely conscientious and hard-working. He is a self-starter who takes pride in his work. Kyle's homework and note-taking are exemplary in every way: thorough, neat, and organized. He comes to class ready to learn and stays attentive for the entire period. Kyle carries himself with a quiet composure and is always ready to help his fellow classmates. Kyle has been a model student in every aspect and a pleasure to have in class this year."

TECHNOLOGY

Finley McDonald

Finley McDonald has been selected as the Technology department student of the month.

Finley's teacher says...

“Finley came in to Jefferson this year having transferred in and has absolutely hit the ground running in both the Intro to Woodworking class as well as the 3D Modeling class. She has established herself as a top performer, and has shown incredible attention to detail, the like of which has not been seen in other classes this year. We have been very impressed with Finley's dedication, and are looking forward to seeing what she can continue to accomplish.”

VIDEO PRODUCTION

Olivia Gugliotta

Olivia Gugliotta has been selected as the Video Production department student of the month.

Olivia's teacher says...

“Olivia Gugliotta has been a great addition to the Video Production department. She has demonstrated a lot of creativity and passion for production. She has a very sharp vision for how a production should be created and she is more than capable of getting it done the right way and on-time. Olivia also shows a strong set of technical skills, especially when it comes to editing. She understands the goal of a project and can edit as needed to get to her objective. Olivia is a wonderful student and a fantastic part of the Video production program.”

MUSIC

Madison Matthews

Madison Matthews has been selected as the music department student of the month.

Madison's teacher says...

"As a Freshman I have been impressed with how outgoing she has been and she has shown a real level of maturity for a first year in choir. She has no fear and has been a part of the Fall Drama, Madrigals, Broadway Cabaret Night, and now the musical. She is dependable, hardworking, and a great new asset to our soprano section. She leads by example and is always ready for the next musical challenge! I look forward to our future concerts and performances. Job well done!!"

ART

Matthew Ellis

Matthew Ellis has been selected as the Art department student of the month.

Matthew's teacher says...

"Matt is a talented artist who shows a passion for art and he is never afraid to try something new. He has a unique and creative approach to his art. Matt is always coming up with new ideas and concepts, and is never satisfied with simply copying what he sees. He is constantly pushing himself to grow and improve."
