

January 2021 Students of the Month

English- Daniel Mysliwec

“Daniel Mysliwec has shown exceptional promise the first half of this year in his Multimedia Broadcasting & Journalism Academy courses, especially Communications Honors. Most recently Daniel presented his Future Self project to the class, which was engaging, articulate, and creative. Congratulations Daniel! Keep up the exceptional work!”-Ms. Holloway

Math- Madison Nemec

“Madison is a hard working conscientious student who has been joining my office hours regularly to help improve her grade. Not only did she improve her grade this marking period, she also has a deeper understanding of the topics we are learning. In addition to being a dedicated student, Madison is polite, kind to her peers, and always has a smile on her face. It is a joy working with her.”-Ms. Signorello

Social Studies- Erin Mallory

“Erin has shown consistency throughout the school year. She is an outstanding student who brings intelligence as well as laughter to every class. She is a class leader who is often turned to by other students to answer the tough questions. Her knowledge of the subject and analytical style of thinking often brings a refreshing atmosphere to the course. She is always there to congratulate or offer assistance to her fellow classmates. She is kind, courteous and friendly and is well deserving of the student of the month.”-Mr. Hough

Science- Emily LaVacca

“Emily is one of my best students. She is bright, works hard, and never hesitates to ask questions when she does not understand a concept. She is always cheerful and enjoys science class. Emily is a pleasure to have in class. Keep up the good work!”-Mr. Guzewicz

Music- Helar Lanchipa

“Helar Lanchipa has enrolled in a wide array of music courses in his time at JTMS and JTHS. He is currently enrolled in Advanced Studio Recording Honors where he demonstrates a high level of skill and creativity using music technology. Helar's recording sessions include a high level of detail. His projects are interesting, unique and a pleasure for the listener. He can recreate a cover song with great accuracy, and is equally skilled in composing original music. Helar's hard work and great skill make him the JTHS music student of the month! Congrats, Helar!”- Mr. Gugger

Health/PE- Nicholas Karamanol

“Niko has been a leader of discussion in Driver Education. He is dedicated to his learning and helps his fellow classmates understand topics by facilitating conversations.”-Ms. Oller

World Language- Jaden Cruz

“Jaden goes above and beyond in ASL class. He is conscientious of Deaf norms and always looks to sign accurately and with the proper etiquette. Jaden comes to class prepared and eager to sign. Virtual learning has presented its challenges but that has not stopped Jaden. He perseveres and continues to sign and shine.”-Ms. Garcia

Business- Cameron Bubb

“Cameron has to be one of the most conscientious, hard-working students I've ever run across. He consistently comes to class with a wonderfully positive attitude and a ready smile. A regular contributor to class discussions, I welcome his thoughtful ideas and enthusiasm.”-Ms. Pavero

Video Production- Adam Hahn

“Adam Hahn is a powerhouse of creativity and video production. He has been involved with the Video department for two years and his skills have only improved. He has a unique ability to create productions that have a lot of feeling and they show how invested he is in every production. Adam is well respected by his peers and is always ready to lend a helping hand and his support. He's a great addition to the Video program!”-Mr. Kazanfer

Technology- Kayla Butler

“Kayla is a creative thinker and understands how architectural design can impact the way a person feels. Kayla incorporates her love of skiing into the classroom by her leadership, focus and team collaboration. I always look forward to seeing what ideas and words of wisdom that Kayla comes up with next.”-Mr. Nicholas

Art- Kaitlyn Stuck

“What do you get when you have a new art teacher start midyear? Students that step up, offer assistance when asked, and are just all around awesome. I am in week 4 at JTHS and I must say, all my students have made this an easy transition. I especially want to recognize Kaitlyn Stuck from my AP Art & Design class. Kaitlyn has offered me the use of previous projects to use as examples for my other classes, has given me thoughtful tips on how to create community within each classroom, and not to mention she is engaged, on task, and excelling on her own assignments. Way to go Kaitlyn, keep up the good work and thank you!”-Ms. Canales
