

March 2022

Student of the Month

ENGLISH

Sarah Mowrer

Sarah Mowrer has been selected as the English department student of the month.

*Sarah's teacher says... "Sarah possesses the acute ability to see past what is written on the page and truly hone in to the heart of whatever she is reading. Her positive attitude and constant curiosity drive her success in and out of the classroom. She supports her peers and always embraces new opportunities for learning. Whether analyzing Tim O'Brien's use of language in The Things They Carried or writing about F. Scott Fitzgerald and character analysis in The Great Gatsby, Sarah is a dedicated student and deserving of the title Student of the Month." ~ Miss Lindstedt*

MATHEMATICS

Maia Alick

Maia Alick has been selected as the Mathematics department student of the month.

Maia's teacher says..."Maia is an absolute pleasure to have in Geometry class. She is a frequent participant, asking meaningful questions to deepen her understanding of the material. Maia comes to class everyday with a smile on her face and is eager to start the day's lesson. Not only does she excel on classwork and homework assignments, but she also exceeds expectations on assessments. Maia encompasses all characteristics of a stellar math student." ~ Mrs. Neral

SOCIAL STUDIES

Dylan Kircher

Dylan Kircher has been selected as the Social Studies department student of the month.

Dylan's teacher says..."Dylan continually performs at a high level in U.S. History II Honors. His ability to process information and to make historical connections has separated him from his peers. He conscientiously completes all of his assignments and participates in class discussions. ~ Mr. Eastman

SCIENCE

Gianna Gagliardi

Gianna Gagliardi has been selected as the Science department student of the month.

Gianna's teacher says..."As a senior in Forensics, she is always looking for ways to further her knowledge in the subject area. She participates in class discussions and provides her own insight into the world of forensic science. She is thinking about pursuing a degree in this field which shows in her determination and dedication to her work and learning in this class."

~ Mrs. Montgomery

HEALTH/PE

Olivia LaMonica

Olivia LaMonica has been selected as the Health/PE department student of the month.

Olivia's teacher says..."Olivia has been a pleasure to have in class all year. I can always count on her to give 100% effort regardless of the activity. She is always exceeding expectations and is constantly encouraging her peers. Olivia is always willing to collect and put equipment away to help out. She is the kind of student that every teacher would love to have in class." ~ Mr. Thide

WORLD LANGUAGE

Scott Gundlah

Scott Gundlah has been selected as the World Language department student of the month.

Scott's teacher says..."Having had Scott as a student in my Spanish class as an 8th grade student, and now once again as a 10th grader, I can appreciate how far he has progressed as a World Language learner. He consistently works hard, is respectful of all and demonstrates a positive attitude. I'm thrilled to have Scott in my class once again and looking forward to a strong finish to this school year." ~ Mr. Quinn

BUSINESS

Rhea Patel

Rhea Patel has been selected as the Business department student of the month.

Rhea's teacher says..."Rhea joined FBLA last year as a Freshman and this year, as a sophomore, her dedication and leadership have helped the chapter to achieve a number of significant goals. Rhea's participation and effort has been pivotal in the success of last year's Animal Shelter Fundraiser and this year's Toys for Tots drive. She has already told me she wants to run for chapter president. Rhea is a kind and gracious person and I am pleased to nominate her for Student of the Month." ~ Mrs. Pavero

TECHNOLOGY

Ethan Tarabocchia

Ethan Tarabocchia has been selected as the Technology department student of the month.

Ethan's teacher says..."Ethan is a highly motivated student who consistently does his best on every assignment. I've been fortunate enough to have him as a student in both 3D Modeling as well as Engineering 1, where he excelled in both classes. Ethan may be quiet, but he works well with others, is always willing to help, is very creative and is also a fabulous critical thinker. I'm consistently impressed by his work and I know that he's going to do wonderful things when he graduates next year!" ~ Mrs. Sawicki

VIDEO PRODUCTION

Frank Garruto

Frank Garruto has been selected as the Video Production department student of the month.

Frank's teacher says..."Frank has been a major contributor to the Video Department his whole high school career. He has developed into an amazing powerhouse of video skills and knowledge. He not only knows the "how" but also the "why" of production. Frank's work on "Good Morning, Jefferson!", both in front of and behind the camera, has raised the quality of the show to a very high standard. Not only is he a valuable resource for his technical aptitude but his energetic personality makes him a joy to be around. He will be greatly missed! ~ Mr. Kazanfer

MUSIC

Nicholas Roberts

Nicholas Roberts has been selected as the music department student of the month.

Nicholas' teacher says..."Nick is a sophomore in the JTHS music program. He currently plays the Tuba in Symphonic Band and Wind Ensemble. Nick also plays the trombone in Jazz Band and took on the unique and challenging task of learning how to play the soprano recorder for the school musical, Tuck Everlasting. He actively seeks new challenges in the music wing including choir, music production and additional secondary instruments like the trumpet. Nick works hard, plays great and is always willing to take on new and challenging tasks. Congrats, Nick! ~ Mr. Gugger

ART

Mackenzie Rock

Mackenzie Rock has been selected as the Art department student of the month.

Mackenzie's teacher says..."Mackenzie takes pride in all of the work she does in Drawing and Painting class. She has wonderful, creative ideas that she develops into finished works of art. She moves quickly and meticulously through each and every project with a great eye for detail. Look for her artwork on display and you will be impressed! ~ Mrs. Simler